

THERE ARE STORIES EVERYWHERE.

An artist. A play. A city event. A beauty, fashion, or wellness new trend. The arrival of a new restaurant in town. A chef, a film, TV or music album. An art exhibit, a hotel, shop, boutique or a cinema, playhouse or Improv. A new travel destination near or far...

We review all the must-attend places and things to try in your favorite cities. We interview the people behind the names and report on city news.

Starting with the Florida Keys, Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Boca Raton, Delray Beach, Orlando, West Palm Beach, Jupiter, Stuart, Jensen Beach, Daytona Beach, St. Augustine, Jacksonville... for us, it's all STORYTELLING.

So, what's your story?

Why City Stories are Better Than Self-promotion

WORK WITH US

MAC MAG isn't just a digital magazine. It's a place to discover and explore the cities in which we live and connect with each other. The writing is a dialogue between Maritza Cosano, a professional journalist, and the notables of multiple industries such as the arts, film, TV, music, culinary, beauty, wellness, fashion, book publishing, travel, real estate, as well as those places and things waiting to be traveled, explored, and experienced.

MAC MAG's Readers' Median Age Range: 25-65+

- MAC MAG's mission is to cover the South Florida scene, profiling our people, their businesses, and our cities' multicultural, dynamic scene.
- OUR REACH: As a digital publication, we are everywhere, providing High-Quality Content, Photography & Videography.
- MAC MAG reaches a diverse audience, extending advertisers' visibility and engagement.

COMPANY + STORY + CITIES

At MAC MAG, we focus on our readers—[the audience + the user] and give them an experience they value. We like to feature stories about people, brands, and cities, that they can read about and explore for themselves.

Little Palm Island, Florida Keys

Every adventure, whether it's close to home or far away, begins with a dream. MAC MAG covers travel destinations that offer our "travel lovers" a chance to read a professional review of a destination, including the luxurious hotel/resort they will stay in, like Little Palm Island in the Florida Keys pictured above.

Maritza Cosano works with travel destinations to experience and then write a professional review about the hotel and adventures that can be found in that city. This coverage provides a win-win situation for the customer + company + cities. OUR BUSINESS MODEL

Our first love is storytelling, and this is reflected on all our stories. As a digital publication, we seek out to find the best stories—going beyond the facade, the gadget, the trend or fashion, or the individual behind the name.

From start to finish, we've got the city beat covered on all our platforms. Your NEWS, is our NEWS. Advertising begins at $100/per month for a 300x300 Ad.

DISTRIBUTION

As our digital publication continues to grow, regular statistics, including page views, average time on page, and monthly unique visitors will be pulled from Google Analytics and posted on this media kit. This is critical data for brands who opt to promote their products and services banners and ads on our website.
